

Submitted by email to the Canadian Transportation Agency

Subject: Protection on Airlines

I thoroughly disagree with the CTA's plan to lighten up restrictions on passenger protections while flying. The airlines are most likely the way Covid19 was brought into Canada in the first place.

How can you Possibly limit the requirements for air travelers' protection? This would be Murder if you reduce the portection requirements. DON'T DO IT!

Angela Southward