

Submitted by email to the Canadian Transportation Agency

Subject: Re: emotional support animals.

I am not in favour of ESAs being on public airlines. I am allergic to them. It's bad enough when little dogs and cats are allowed in their little kennels and put under the seats like a purse or personal item. The air in the airplane carries germs etc throughout the whole plane putting everyone at risk.