

Submitted to the Canadian Transportation Agency (Form submission)

Subject: Consultation on proposed changes to strengthen the Air Passenger Protection Regulations

Name: Barbara Eckersley

Date: 2023-07-12

The language and consequences for the air lines needs to be more harsh when flights are canceled or severely delayed. When families end up cancelling holidays due to flight cancellations or disruptions, then the airline needs to be held responsible for that and reimburse the family for ALL holiday costs.