

Submitted to the Canadian Transportation Agency (Form submission)

Subject: Consultation on proposed changes to strengthen the Air Passenger Protection Regulations

Name: John Edgar

Date: 2023-07-11

Just copy the European model already. No need for a new expensive government department that will take forever to review complaints. Subtext: making a new special made in Canada solution when there is a perfectly good working model is incredibly dumb (and expensive).