Subject: Consultation on proposed changes to strengthen the Air Passenger Protection Regulations

THE COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW OF PROPOSED CHANGES DOES NOT CLARIFY AIR PASSENGER RIGHTS AND ITS PROTECTION UNDER DIFFERENT SITUATIONS. SO I HAVE A PROPOSAL OF A COMMON SENSE APPROACH I.E. CANADIAN GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERING AIR PASSENGER PROTECTION, BY AIRLINES IN DEALINGS WITH PASSENGERS BEFORE DEPARTURE, AFTER ARRIVAL, AND IN TRANSIT.

COMMON SENSE APPROACH :

IN THE EVENT THERE IS DELAY IN DEPARTURE AIRLINE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR TREATING ITS PASSENGERS WITH DIGNITY, HAVING SAD THAT, AIRLINE SHOULD PROVIDE VOUCHERS TO PASSENGERS FOR FOOD ;

IN THE EVENT DELAY IS LONGER, AIRLINE SHOULD PERMIT THE FOLLOWING , OPTION TO REBOOK, OPTION FOR REFUND, OPTION TO CONTINUE TO WAIT WITH VOUCHER FOR FOOD AND HOTEL

THE GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERING AIR PASSENGER PROTECTION REGULATIONS WITH AIRLINES AND IN THIS MATTER, THE AIRLINE CEO WILL BE INTERESTED IN STREAMLINING IN A COMMON SENSE APPROACH WHICH DEALS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS, TREATS PASSENGERS WITH DIGNITY AND TREATS THEM AS HUMAN BEINGS.
