Feedback: Charging a fee to process a complaint? The CTA is a government body already subsidized by CDN taxpayer monies and now you propose to charge a separate additional fee to subsidize the CTA employees to do the work that they're hired to already do? Which way do I look for the candid camera?

Punitive measures to the aviation sector to compensate for government over-bureacratized processes is exactly why the public has an ever increasing cynical view of government.

What happened to the proposals put forth by the CDN Senate's paper in 2012 entitled: The Future of Canadian Air Travel: Toll booth or spark plug??

The government has the primary responsibility of acting fiscally responsible on behalf of the CDN population. Double dipping and charging the CDN population does not accomplish this by any means.
