

Submitted by email to the Canadian Transportation Agency

Subject: temporary APPR adjustments

In a word, No damm way!

The airlines has run roughshod over it passengers far too long. With your backing.

The airline passenger bill of rights is more of an airline protection bill.

You should grow a spine and stand up for passengers, like you should.

Hilton Langille