

Submitted by email to the Canadian Transportation Agency

Subject : Pets on flights

I have flown many times internationally with my small dog in cabin. He stays in a small carry kennel on the floor by my feet just under the seat in front of me. We have never had a issue with any other passengers or crew. The dog sleeps most of the way anyway. I would hate to see people who do not look after their pets ruin reasonable travel with pets by others.