

Submitted to the Canadian Transportation Agency (Form submission)

Name: Lu Xu

Subject: Consultation on new refund requirements

Date: 03-01-2021

“The CTA will soon have the authority to make a new regulation to close that gap for future travel.” The pandemic has been out of control since last air passenger protection regulations from March 2020. As a result, the new regulation also needs to close the gap and protect air passengers for the time period between previous regulation and new regulation when airlines already cancelled passengers’ flights before the new regulation takes effect.