

To whom it may concern,

I am sending this note as a plea on behalf of my 9year old daughter who is severely allergic to tree nuts and peanuts. Requesting you to please revise your travel policies to include a safe environment for people with anaphylaxis so that they can be included with regular passengers and not fear for their lives every time they travel.

Thank you

Tanya Bell